

Politics

The politics department decided the CAGs based on an aggregate of the following data, mock grades, timed work done in class and formal assessments logged on Google Classroom. We used a sliding-scale based on the old UMS system (0-100). We decided top middle and lower tiers within each grade. Adjustments were made after a discussion between upper sixth teachers, but these normally were minor adjustments on the scale.